on Saturday 15 June 2024

AIM: To offer the opportunity for a large gathering of singers to get together for the pure joy of singing...

Choirs, groups and individual singers all welcome to book.

FORMAT: A fun day for everyone wanting to raise the rafters with the mighty sound of many voices in harmony.

No orchestra, no performance, no audience, so no pressure!

MUSIC: with three accomplished choir leaders, Frances Watt, Zee Muziq and our very own Lester Simpson, who will each bring different methods and loads of experience, teaching songs for everyone to enjoy a broad mix of musical genres and styles from around the world. All a cappella.

No need to be able to read music, although some songs will have scores provided if you like the dots, and others will just have lyrics for learning by ear.

TICKETS: £12.50 pp to include teas and coffees

AVAILABLE from  www.ticketsource.co.uk

THE DAY: Mid-morning refreshment break then 45 mins for lunch. Singers should bring a picnic or can buy snacks from nearby shops. The Main Hall holds 150 max. There is disabled access by lift. Do book early to avoid disappointment!

We look forward to sharing a great day of song with new friends and old....
